The Arizona REALTORS* Residential Resale Real Estate Purchase Contract is the most commonly used form of contract for the transfer of resale residential property in Arizona. Therefore, it is vital for everyone involved in a residential transaction to know the contract terms. Your REALTOR* can provide you with a SAMPLE copy for thorough review, but here are a few highlights.

BUYER ATTACHMENT:

The Buyer Attachment cover page is not a part of the contract between the parties but alerts the buyer to some of the major provisions in the contract. It also informs the buyer of the risks associated with wire transfer fraud, a scheme used by cyber criminals to steal money via fake wiring instructions.

PROPERTY SECTION:

Both the buyer and the seller are identified and the agreement to buy and sell is spelled out. The Close of Escrow (COE) is defined as when the deed is recorded. The seller agrees to deliver possession and existing keys to the buyer at COE or as otherwise indicated. The fixtures and personal property to be included in the sale are also listed.

FINANCING SECTION:

If financing is involved, the buyer is obligated to take specific steps to obtain a loan and is required to attach a Pre-Qualification Form. If the buyer is unable in good faith to obtain loan approval by the specified time, the contract is cancelled, and the earnest money returned. The sale is also contingent upon an appraisal of the Premises for at least the purchase price.

TITLE AND ESCROW SECTION:

The contract is to be used as escrow instructions, and the escrow company is identified in this subsection. The escrow company is instructed to deliver to buyer and seller a commitment for title insurance together with copies of all documents that will remain as exceptions to the title insurance or title commitment.

DISCLOSURES SECTION:

The seller is obligated to deliver a completed Arizona REALTORS* Seller's Property Disclosure Statement form to the buyer within three days after contract acceptance. The seller is also obligated to deliver a written five-year insurance claims history. If the premises were constructed prior to 1978, lead-based paint information must be provided.

WARRANTIES SECTION:

Buyer and Seller agree the premises are being sold in its present physical condition. The Seller warrants that at COE all personal property not included in the sale and all debris will be removed; the premises will be in substantially the same condition as on the date of contract acceptance; and all agreed upon repairs/improvements will be completed. Warranties that survive closing are also identified in this section.

DUE DILIGENCE SECTION:

The buyer's inspection period is 10 days unless otherwise indicated. During the inspection period, the buyer can conduct all desired inspections and investigations. Prior to expiration of the inspection period, the buyer may deliver a signed notice of any items disapproved and cancel the contract or provide the seller the opportunity to correct the item. The buyer is advised to consult the Buyer Advisory provided by the Arizona REALTORS* to assist with their due diligence inspections and investigations.

REMEDIES SECTION:

If a party fails to comply with any provision of the contract, the other party must deliver a notice to the non-complying party specifying the non-compliance. If the non-compliance is not cured within three days after delivery of the notice, the failure to comply becomes a breach of contract.

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS SECTION:

A variety of additional terms are included in this section. For example, unless otherwise provided, delivery of all notices and documentation required or permitted in the contract must be in writing and hand-delivered; sent via facsimile; email; or sent by overnight courier.

SELLER ACCEPTANCE SECTION:

The seller acknowledges receipt of a copy of the contract and grants permission to the broker to deliver a copy to the buyer. If a counter offer is attached, the seller must sign and deliver both the offer set forth in the contract form and the counter offer. If there is a conflict between the offer and the counter offer, the provisions of the counter offer are controlling.

The Arizona REALTORS* Residential Resale Real Estate Purchase Contract is designed to make transactions proceed more smoothly, set forth the obligations of the parties with specificity, and prevent disputes. Whether you are buying or selling, seek the guidance of a REALTOR* who understands the complexities of the contract and the real estate sales process.
